	red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank insignia. About 75 percent of the windows of the installation were lighted after nightfall. At 8:40 a.m., 14 troops wearing black-bordered black epaulets and carrying saws and axes left the installation toward the town exit. Intensive noise of engines, presumably tank engines, was heard from the vehicle sheds. At 9:30 a.m., a T-34 tank left the installation returning after about 20 minutes.
